Indigenous Journeys

Be immersed in the living traditions of the Indigenous people of British Columbia. Experience authentic music, dance, food, arts, stories and fascinating cultural artifacts.

Day 1
Secwepemc Museum & Heritage Park
http://secwepemcmuseum.com

The Secwepemc Museum & Heritage Park provides fascinating insight into the lifestyle and culture of the Secwepemc First Nations people. Cultural displays extend onto a Heritage Park, featuring archaeological remains of a 2000 year old Secwepemc winter village site and gardens featuring traditional plants.

Moccasin Trails
https://mocsintraails.com

Tour the traditional waters of the Secwepemcucu’l’ecw (Shuswap Nation). Learn the history from a local Knowledge Keeper who will tell you the stories as you paddle gently down the South Thompson River. Take in the eagles and hawks soaring, see mountains and historical sites from the view of the path our ancestors have travelled for generations.

Quaaout Lodge
http://quaaoutlodge.com

Nestled in a serene setting overlooking Little Shuswap Lake and surrounded by majestic mountains, Quaaout Lodge is the ideal balance of quiet relaxation and outdoor inspiration. Celebrating and honouring the traditions and thriving culture of Secwepemc Nation, you will be welcomed to the lodge as a guest and will leave as a friend.

Day 2
Indigenous World Winery
https://indigenousworldwinery.com

Indigenous World Winery merges modern culture with Indigenous history. The winery proprietors are descendants of the Syilx people and have a strong passion for nature, the land and the rich history of the Okanagan nation.

Kekuli Café
http://kekulicafe.com

Don't panic...they’ve got Bannock! Kekuli Café is an original locally-owned Bannock restaurant offering First Nations cuisine with a modern and contemporary twist. A second location is also located in Merritt.

The Cove Lakeside Resort
http://www.covelakeside.com

The Cove Lakeside Resort is a full service, all-suite luxury resort on the shores of Okanagan Lake in West Kelowna. Featuring a private lakefront beach and marina, surrounded by dramatic mountain views and extraordinary dining at the Bonfire Restaurant.

Destinations:
- Chase
- West Kelowna
- Osoyoos
Day 3

NK'Mip Desert Cultural Centre
http://nk mipdesert.com

Discover the fascinating stories of Canada's only desert and share in the rich living culture of the Okanagan people at the NK'Mip Desert Cultural Centre. The state-of-the-art interpretive centre features extensive indoor and outdoor galleries, interactive displays and multi-media theatre experiences.

Spotted Lake | ktlil’xw

Spotted Lake is a sacred medicine lake and a protected cultural heritage site of the Syilx/Okanagan People. In the heat of the summer, water evaporates leaving concentrations of minerals that create a unique natural formation. Throughout the season, the spots shift in colour and size, depending on the mineral makeup of each individual spot.

Spirit Ridge Resort
https://spiritridge.hyatt.com

Stay at Spirit Ridge Resort, luxury accommodations set among gently sloping vineyards, the glittering Osoyoos Lake and Canada's only desert. Discover a wellness-centered oasis, in a place long-held sacred by the Osoyoos Indian Band.
